TALLEST BUILDING IN WORLD. Semething About the Man Who Is to Build It.

Build it.

The New York papers have recently had considerable to say about a new building which when finished will be the third tallest in the world, which is soon to be erected at Broadway and Park place in the metropolis. It will have 45 stories and be 625 feet high, more than a dozen feet higher than the Singer building. Uticans have more than ordinary interest in this new structure because it is to be erected by Frank Woolworth, who made fame and fortune through his 5 and 10-cent stores and because his first venture in that line was made in this city. The new structure, which will cost $5,000,000, will be called the Woolworth building, and the man whose name it bears has the money to pay the bills. He made it cut of the 5 and 10-cent stores, of which he now has 286, and there are about 9,000 people in his employ, and Woolworth himself is not much more than 50 years of ago. His career is like that of many another American and is typical of this country.

Frank Woolworth was born on a farm in Jefferson county, in the northern part of this state, and though his father insisted that he should be a farmer the lad refused and when he was old enough secured the chance to work for nothing in a Watertown dry goods store and at the end of three months he was getting $3.50 per week and at the end of six years his salary was only $10 a week. He had the idea and he put it into operation, starting a store in Utica in February, 1879. His first bill of goods, which, though yellow with age he still preserves, was for $222.14, and when the Utica landlord demanded his $30 a month rent in advance, it came near to breaking the proprietor. The story of the growth of the Woolworth stores is more or less familiar. Woolworth added industry pluck and perseverance to netive ability. He liked the mercantile business and it was his heart's desire to follow it.

BAD DREAMS

Nightmare, Restlessness and Nightsweats all Caused by Indigestion.

Half of the nervousness in the world, all of the disturbing dreams and nightmares can be ended in a few weeks by a simple, inexpensive treatment guar-anteed by The Lee & Osgood Co. Upset stomach is the cause of nerv-ousness and bad dreams. Your food is lying in your stomach undigested and fermenting; it is forming poisonous gases which irritates the pheumogastric nerve that leads direct from the brain, and ends in a network of tiny branches running through the stom-

It is also the irritation of this great pheumogastric nerve that causes headaches. Many times people have severe headaches and know they are caused by the stomach, but do not know how. If you are nervous, have dreams or nightmare, and do not sleep sound at night, get a 50 cent box of MI-O-NA stomach tablets and take one or two after or with meals. MI-O-NA stom-

SPEAK THE GOOD WORD. It isn't the thinking how grateful we For the kindness of friends come to bless

Our sorrow or loss
'Neath the weight of the cress;
It is telling our gratefulness.

It isn't the love that they have in their hearts hearts
And neglect or forget to reveal,
That brightens the lives
Of husbands and wives;
It is telling the love that they feel.

It isn't the thinking of good to man-That comes as a cooling drink
To the famishing ones
Of Earth's daughters and sone;
It is telling the good that we think.

It isn't the music, asleep in the strings Of the lute, that entrances the ear, And brings to the breast The spirit of rest; It is only the music we hear.

It isn't the lilies we hide from the world

Nor the roses we keep as our own

That are strewn at our feet

By the angels we meet

On our way to the Great White

Throne,

It isn't the silence of hope unexpressed
That heartens and strengthens the weak
To triumph through strife
For the great things of life;
It's the words of good cheer that speak.

PHILOSOPHY ABOUT EVERY HOUSE-HOLD.

Laughter in the household Brings happy hearts together; For sumshine lurks in mother's smile, No matter what the weather,

Neatness is a virtue The housewife must pursue; But if she makes a god of it She soon becomes a shrew.

A freiful, weary women
To greet a man at night
Will spoil each course at dinner.
Though it be cooked just right, A little spice of humor Will lighten busy days: And mishaps turned to laughter Will right themselves always.

A house that "goes by clockwork"
Will always be admired.
But the one where all folk feel at home
Is where we creep when tired.
